Introduction

UJA-Federation of New York's What You Made Possible is a comprehensive record of the funding we allocated in the 2018 – 2019 fiscal year. This publication reflects our commitment to the highest degree of programmatic integrity and fiscal transparency. We're funder, strategic planner, convener, and community steward — and our work is grounded in Jewish values. We're dedicated to nurturing a network of nonprofits, supporting the range from grassroots start-ups to flagship service providers.

The annual publication of this book is an important moment to celebrate our commitments and our ongoing relationships with the community-based nonprofits that share our vision for today and tomorrow. At our core, we are driven by our abiding mission to care for Jews everywhere and New Yorkers of all backgrounds, respond to crises close to home and far away, and shape our Jewish future in New York, in Israel, and in nearly 70 countries around the world. We are acutely aware that none of this would happen without our organizational partners.

Our annual allocations reflect this mission and are an important indicator of how that mission is realized in the community. Each year, hundreds of volunteer leaders and professionals come together in the office and in the field to review ongoing and emergent needs and, in close relationship with front-line nonprofits, make funding decisions that lead us to achieve the greatest impact. We pursue systemic solutions that are long term and transformative, and we're positioned to mobilize resources, activate networks, and strengthen organizations in order to help communities thrive. This requires us to stay both focused and flexible, intently maintaining successful strategies that achieve our goals and testing new models that pursue innovations. And, in times of crisis, we respond powerfully and nimbly to make a difference in real time.

We're committed to being deeply present in the neighborhoods and communities where people live, gather, and connect, and we represent a dynamic network that's ready and responsive.

We're proud of our tradition of careful stewardship and investment of our donors' dollars. UJA's founders created a system that has not only stood the test of time, but also shaped the times. Today, the grants reflected in this book — individually and collectively — are shaping the future of our collective story.

What's in This Book?

WHAT WE DO — AND HOW WE DO IT

We begin by organizing teams of volunteers and staff that represent the rich diversity of Jewish life. Together, we work from organizational priorities that determine the path for how and what we fund. We also listen to voices within our community — from nonprofit staff and academics to community members and the clients we help — to best understand how to make the greatest impact.

In fiscal year 2019, UJA-Federation distributed $140,929,298. This includes $66,965,344 in general operating support to a network of 73 core partners and $73,963,954 in strategic, designated grants to longstanding institutions, grassroots organizations, synagogues, day schools, and other eligible nonprofit organizations.

That's how we change the lives of 4.5 million people a year.

WHAT'S IN THIS BOOK?

We divide our Report of Grants Awarded into three sections:

1. GRANTS BY ISSUE AREA

We begin with a helpful overview and grant-making highlights from individual funding bodies. We include a full list of volunteer leaders and professional staff dedicated to our work.

2. GRANTS BY AGENCY — SUMMARY

We summarize UJA-Federation funding to individual nonprofit partners or grantees. A chart reports the full funding amount that we've given any specific agency, including core operating dollars and any targeted grants.

3. GRANTS BY AGENCY — FULL LISTING

We detail grants awarded to individual agencies, including a list of grants by name and the full funding amount. This listing offers the most complete representation of the work we fund.

JEWISH COMMUNAL NETWORK

Overview

UJA-Federation supports a network of 73 core partners and hundreds of nonprofits. Large and small, they are the heart of our collective power. This strong, sustainable, and connected ecosystem maximizes the impact of UJA's mission and work on the ground. The Network Department combines core operating funding, supportive block grants, and targeted capacity building to develop organizational excellence, maximize working together, and ensure that our network of nonprofits highly aligns with our mission. Our funding and policy decisions are informed by data, and we carefully oversee and assess performance and management.

PRIORITY 1: NETWORK PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

The Network Department is increasingly focused on analyzing the effectiveness of our network by looking at it holistically, thinking of each funded organization as one part of an interdependent and complementary enterprise serving the Jewish and broader community of New York. We're widening our scope and incorporating critical data and research coming from within UJA, as well as from outside sources including city and state government agencies, in order to identify opportunities to strengthen the network. That way, our network — and each organization within it — remains vital and prepared for the ever-shifting realities of our world.

PRIORITY 2: PROVIDE GENERAL OPERATING SUPPORT

In collaboration with UJA's Impact and Performance Assessment Department (IPAD), we're designing new methodology to determine appropriate levels of general operating support for partner agencies. We're drawing on lessons learned from past UJA allocation processes, and on best practices in the broader philanthropic community. The new methodology will be piloted during the FY21 allocations process and will take a variety of factors into consideration, including UJA priorities, organizational effectiveness, and community need.

PRIORITY 3: CAPACITY BUILDING & IMPACT INVESTMENT

Together with its planning partners across Community Planning and Agency Resources (CPAR), Network will evaluate the most strategic use of funding for particular sectors or clusters of agencies. Among the work currently underway is a deep dive into CUNY Hillels to help them become stronger organizations better equipped to engage their Jewish student populations, who have limited discretionary time. In partnership with the Caring Department, we're determining the best ways to leverage the power of the organizations currently providing a safety net for Jews living at or near the poverty line.

PRIORITY 4: PROVIDE TARGETED CAPACITY-BUILDING SUPPORT

We continue to provide a variety of supports to organizations that need to grow and evolve as they struggle to meet the needs of the rapidly changing communities they serve. This includes providing supplemental funding, capacity-building grants, and/or individualized consultations.

Total number of grants awarded in FY 2019: 182

JEWISH LIFE

Overview

The Jewish Life Department maximizes opportunities for access and connection to Jewish identity and community in New York, in Israel, and around the world, ensuring the availability of deep and meaningful Jewish experiences. We value and nurture our rich and varied traditions and heritage, and we look for models to advance inspirational, innovative, and welcoming Jewish practice. Our work builds bridges and relationships through mutual respect, understanding, and responsibility among Jews and their neighbors.

The Jewish Life Department also builds and strengthens community infrastructure by investing and developing leadership, building the capacity of key organizations, and fostering collaboration between organizations.

Jewish Life's priorities reflect our efforts to encourage growth and change in specific regions and content areas.

PRIORITY 1: JEWISH LIFE IN NEW YORK

Service has been the center of Jewish life for centuries. Recognizing how critical this core value is for our community, our work in New York strengthens the field of Jewish service, building action-oriented coalitions grounded in core Jewish values. We support local engagement projects that demonstrate the Jewish commitment to repairing the world and Jewish meaning through grassroots community organizing that demonstrates the power of Judaism.

We also understand that immersive Jewish experiences are a proven and powerful catalyst for personal transformation that develop connections to community. We support these holistic Jewish experiences for people of all ages, families, and peer groups — and celebrate access to vibrant Jewish life, regardless of gender, sexuality, race, or ethnicity.

PRIORITY 2: JEWISH LIFE IN ISRAEL

We dream of a Jewish state where everyone who lives there feels at home. The vitality and vibrancy of Jewish life is an important and unique characteristic of Israel that we support and nurture. Jewish Life cultivates, expands, and advocates for pluralistic expressions of Judaism, promoting a more socially cohesive society in Israel.

We work with diverse segments of Israeli society to work toward common goals. And we support expressions of Judaism that powerfully connect Israelis to their Jewish roots, even if they challenge the status quo. We recognize the strength and power of local municipal governments to advance grassroots priorities including vital, dynamic Jewish life and building a future with their local neighbors.

PRIORITY 3: GLOBAL JEWISH COMMUNITIES

There has been a renaissance of Jewish life in Europe and the former Soviet Union, an effort that we have worked hard to nurture and promote. At the same time, the Jewish Life Department continues to pay close attention to changes throughout the region that may impact Jewish life and continues to support communities in ways that are culturally relevant and responsive to local need. We're fostering proud, self-sustaining Jewish communities around the world that embrace Judaism in all its plurality, with members who are strongly connected to their Jewish identity, the State of Israel, and the Jewish people. We're also strengthening the resilience of communities so they can face external challenges to the growth and strength of Jewish life.

CARING

Overview

We recognize that anyone can experience challenges that come with poverty, aging, grief, special needs, mental illness, or the end of life. Our work is guided by the core Jewish values of collective responsibility and tikkun olam (repairing the world), which we demonstrate through building community and promoting volunteerism. We recognize that where there's strong Jewish community, all components of Jewish life are strong. And, we believe in a fair and inclusive Israeli society in which all citizens have equal access to opportunities that strengthen Jewish community worldwide.

PRIORITY 1: MOVE PEOPLE FROM CRISIS TO STABILITY

Many people just get by from month to month, unable to afford escalating food prices, rent, medication costs, and other essentials, putting them at risk of eviction and food insecurity. For those experiencing financial difficulties, we're ready with a full continuum of concrete services so they can meet basic life-sustaining needs and attain greater stability. Once they're stabilized, we offer a pathway toward self-sufficiency for those able to work, including access to job readiness, employment, and small-business development services. We currently support four digital choice food pantries, enabling individuals to select food that reflects and respects their personal preferences, and we look forward to opening a Queens-based employment hub in the year ahead. This past year we awarded new funding to enable community centers to provide holistic supports for families that qualify for scholarship funding.

PRIORITY 2: MOVE INDIVIDUALS FROM ISOLATION TO INCLUSION AND RESILIENCE

Suffering takes many forms: the challenges of end of life, mental illness, or a loved one's dementia; grappling with fertility challenges; struggling to care for a loved one with special needs; or feeling excluded because of a disability. We promote communities that reduce stigma, encouraging people to come forth and get help. We also ensure the services people need are readily accessible, wherever they are. In so doing, we help individuals feel less isolated, become more resilient, and achieve their full potential.

We are also seeing the effects of increased substance abuse and the opioid crisis penetrate the Jewish community. We support a number of prevention and treatment programs, and eagerly anticipate the opening of the Teshuva Center, a residential treatment facility, in the year ahead.

PRIORITY 3: ADDRESS COMMUNITY CHALLENGES THROUGH STRATEGIC VOLUNTEERISM

Our community faces many challenges, and nonprofits provide extraordinary services to people in need. However, the demand for care is always greater than available resources. We believe that volunteerism is a powerful strategy that amplifies our ability to address high-priority community needs while building a caring Jewish community. Our Jewish Service Enterprise Initiative helps agencies create a holistic vision for volunteerism and provide the resources to realize this vision.

PRIORITY 4: STRENGTHEN AT-RISK JEWISH COMMUNITIES AROUND THE WORLD

To meet the ongoing human-service needs of vulnerable Jews, we're developing new strategies and pilot models that help Jewish communities receive the support and care they require. Our resources build robust and resilient Jewish communities, ensuring the capacity and infrastructure to respond to acute or chronic challenges and strengthen their members in times of distress. For example, this past year we provided funding to support the basic needs of Jews in Venezuela struggling to live in a country in chaos.

PRIORITY 5: ADVANCE MARGINALIZED POPULATIONS IN ISRAEL

All Israelis should be able to participate fully in Israeli society — and those who are marginalized should have opportunities to reach their potential and achieve social mobility. We're reducing barriers and increasing possibilities to level the playing field, creating pathways of inclusion for those on the margins and increasing access to educational, employment, and economic opportunities to promote economic mobility. This past year we awarded three planning grants to NGOs working with municipalities in the socio/geographic periphery of Israel to help promote economic development and close gaps.

Total number of grants awarded in FY 2019: 276

Total dollar amount awarded in FY 2019: $25,060,236

UJA IN THE COMMUNITY

Overview

UJA develops our most innovative approaches to emerging issues by collaborating with people in the community who share our passion for solving problems. We strive to be nimble, inclusive, and innovative so that we can meet the rapidly evolving needs of a dynamic, fast-changing community.

To stay on the leading edge, we experiment with new models of investment and service, including venture funds and special initiatives, giving circles, and geographically focused efforts in Brooklyn, in Westchester, and on Long Island.

We identify gaps that, if filled, could increase vitality and stability in organizations at the center of Jewish life. These opportunities are created to pursue new areas of investment and quickly organize locally and regionally to address emerging challenges.

REGIONAL PLANNING

IN BROOKLYN: Thanks to the rapid growth of the Jewish community in North and Brownstone Brooklyn, our regional team is on the ground, experimenting with models of community organizing that build on the momentum of Jewish life — and enhance relationships across the northern part of the borough.

ON LONG ISLAND: Our regional office works hand-in-hand with Jewish institutions on Long Island. Through local allocations, we seed innovative programs and initiatives that address the specific needs of this community.

IN WESTCHESTER: Our regional office advances the Westchester Jewish community's efforts to address emerging and ongoing needs through innovation, collaboration, and creative connections.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Day Schools: Strong Jewish day schools and yeshivot are key to developing the next generation of Jewish leadership. That's why we're focused on the communal challenge of day school sustainability.

Synagogues (SYNERGY): Synagogues provide the Jewish community with a place to gather, share traditions and core values, and feel connected to the past and inspired for the future. Our work with synagogues provides best-in-class training opportunities, congregational coaching, and cutting-edge research to help synagogues thrive as meaningful hubs of Jewish life.

Volunteerism (Time for Good): Living a life of shared responsibility is a core Jewish value. UJA's Time for Good initiative creates a new framework to address the community's most pressing challenges through volunteerism, inspiring and enabling Jewish New Yorkers to discover meaningful ways to make a difference.

Talent Development: We believe that the Jewish community needs skills, passion, and knowledge to lead us into the next phase of Jewish communal life. UJA offers workshops, immersive programs, leadership education, Jewish learning, and other resources to promote and develop professional excellence for the New York Jewish communal system.

THE UJA LAB

The UJA Lab joins years of experience with an entrepreneurial spirit to offer innovative solutions to emerging needs and challenges that require a rapid response within UJA and the broader Jewish community.

Bridging Gaps: UJA LAB places great value on bridging the gap between Israeli and American Jews. As committed as we are to connecting people to Israel, we are equally vested in educating Israelis about Jewish life in America. In just one year, we've welcomed more than 12 cohorts of Israeli influencers on trips to New York.

Community Relations: With the growing spike in hate crimes against the New York Jewish community, the UJA LAB explores, builds, and strengthens community relations. We're forging alliances and building bridges of greater understanding with our neighbors so we can stand united against hate. This ensures that the Jewish community will have the allies we need in times of crisis. And that we are indeed speaking up for other communities in their time of need.

Anti-Semitism/BDS: We're committed to keeping our communities safe and secure so they can proudly engage in Jewish life. We're taking steps to increase security for Jewish organizations and synagogues throughout our communities. And we're empowering college students to advocate against anti-Zionism, which often crosses the line into anti-Semitism.

VENTURE FUNDS, GIVING CIRCLES, AND SPECIAL INITIATIVES

UJA understands that because of size and complexity, our stand-alone planning and resource departments may not be able to address all issues. Our venture funds and giving circles offer the opportunity to pool philanthropic resources and grant funds to focus on areas of need. In unique cases, UJA's executive leadership approves grants for special initiatives.

Total number of grants awarded in FY 2019: 429

Total dollar amount awarded in FY 2019: $19,357,348

Overview

Outside of New York, UJA-Federation is committed to strengthening Israel and supporting Jews around the world. We work closely with The Jewish Agency for Israel and the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, our two largest overseas beneficiaries and a consortium of partners to extend our reach far into the national and international scene.

Shituf is UJA's diverse, unified portfolio that ensures our work in Israel is connected by a shared vision. We help all Israelis by providing human services, bridging diversity, and fostering cultural Jewish life.

The Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI) is our official link between the Jewish state and Jewish communities everywhere. Globally, JAFI cultivates meaningful engagement with Israel, facilitates aliyah, revitalizes Jewish communities in the former Soviet Union and central Europe, and empowers the next generation of European leaders.

The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) improves lives and builds connected Jewish communities in nearly 70 countries around the world. JDC works to alleviate hunger and hardship, especially for the poorest and most disadvantaged Jews in the world; rescue Jews in danger; create lasting connections to Jewish life; and provide immediate relief and long-term development support for victims of natural and man-made disasters.

CRISIS
RECOVERY

Overview

Natural disasters, terror, violence, and hatred shatter millions of lives each year. But our essential relationships with hundreds of nonprofits worldwide enable us to quickly, efficiently, and compassionately respond to these global crises as needed.

SOLIDARITY WITH PITTSBURGH

On October 27, 2018, the deadliest anti-Semitic attack in North American history took place at the Tree of Life synagogue in Pittsburgh. Less than 24 hours later, UJA-Federation of New York set up a Pittsburgh Solidarity Fund. Thanks to the generosity of the New York Jewish community, we contributed $245,000 to the Jewish Federation of Pittsburgh fund, which raised a total of $6.3 million from individuals and institutions worldwide. The largest portions of these funds were given to the families of the 11 deceased and the two people who suffered serious physical wounds. Smaller payments went to those trapped in the building during this horrific scene, and the remaining funds will help the three affected congregations; support reconstruction of the Tree of Life synagogue building; and provide seed funding to launch a community-wide effort for memorializing, commemorating, and educating.

COMMUNITIES IN CONFLICT

Ongoing tensions in Venezuela continued to dominate headlines in 2019. The political, social, and economic situation remained bleak. In 2018, inflation was 1 million percent and continued to increase throughout 2019. There was a real fear that food and fuel would become so scarce that this would cause an even greater humanitarian crisis for the Venezuelan people. During this time, the average citizen lost 24 pounds from hunger, one-third of the country's workers were unemployed, and crime was widespread. UJA prioritized supporting the Jewish community of Venezuela, providing food, medicine, care to the elderly, and general capacity-building support to the Jewish community and its institutions.
