INTRODUCTION

UJA-Federation of New York's Report of Grants Awarded is a comprehensive record of the funding we allocated in the 2016–2017 fiscal year. It reflects our commitment to the highest degree of programmatic integrity and fiscal transparency.

Since our founding more than 100 years ago, our grants have reflected both our abiding mission and our community's emerging needs. Our legacy demands that we stay relevant as the times — and these needs — evolve and change. Built into the very essence of our work is a challenge to find new ways to streamline our grant-making and reporting and refine how we measure results so that we can achieve the greatest impact. As a result, every grant is a reflection of strategic planning, rigorous review, strong collaborations, and a shared vision for the future of the Jewish community.

The launch of our second century of work provided us with an opportune moment to celebrate our commitments, reflect on how we work, and think about our relationships with nonprofits in the community. At our core, we are driven by our abiding mission to care for Jews everywhere and New Yorkers of all backgrounds, respond to crises close to home and far away, and shape our Jewish future in New York, in Israel, and in nearly 70 countries around the world.

As you read through this book, you may notice restructured planning and allocations departments and a rejuvenated idea of how we define our network. This transformation is the result of our efforts to eliminate redundancies, strengthen how we make grants, and streamline our approach to funding. Thanks to this reorganization, we now represent a more dynamic, flexible network that's ready to open the door to greater innovation and collaboration.

As we enter our second century, we proudly continue a tradition of stewardship of our donors' dollars. UJA's founders created a system that not only stood the test of time, but also shaped the times. Today, these grants — individually and collectively — are shaping the next century of our collective story.

WHAT'S IN THIS BOOK?

What We Do — and How We Do It

At UJA, we identify and meet the needs of New Yorkers and Jews everywhere. Our abiding mission guides our work and our ongoing research exposes unmet needs, helping us to determine where our resources will have the greatest effect.

We begin by working with teams of volunteers and staff that represent the rich diversity of Jewish life. Together, we work from organizational priorities that determine the path for how and what we fund. We also listen to diverse voices within our community — from nonprofit staff and academics to volunteers and the clients we help — to best understand how to make the greatest impact on the community. And as a result of our team's expertise and reach, we're poised to help if emergency strikes.

UJA supports a global network of nonprofit partners that include Jewish community centers, human-service agencies, camps, Hillels, and overseas agencies, plus hundreds of grassroots organizations — synagogues, grassroots start-ups, day schools, and other Jewish gateway organizations.

In 2016–2017, UJA-Federation of New York distributed $135,796,088. This includes $68,165,441 in unrestricted grants to a network of more than 80 core partners and nearly $67,630,647 in strategic, targeted grants to long-standing institutions, grassroots organizations, synagogues, day schools, and other eligible nonprofit organizations.

That's how we change the lives of 4.5 million people a year.

What's in This Book?

We divide our Report of Grants Awarded into three sections:

1. Grants by Issue Area

We begin with a helpful overview and grant-making highlights from individual funding bodies and include a full list of volunteer leaders and professional staff dedicated to our work.

2. Grants by Agency — Summary

We summarize UJA-Federation funding to individual nonprofit partners or grantees. A chart reports the full funding amount that we've given any specific agency, including core operating dollars and any targeted grants.

3. Grants by Agency — Full Listing

We detail grants awarded to individual agencies, including a list of grants by name and the full funding amount. It offers the most complete representation of the work we fund.

Jewish Communal Network

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

UJA-Federation supports a network of more than 80 core partners and hundreds of nonprofits. Large and small, they are the heart of our collective power. This strong, sustainable, and connected ecosystem maximizes the impact of UJA's mission and work on the ground.

The Network Department combines core operating funding, supportive block grants, and targeted capacity building to develop organizational excellence, maximize working together, and ensure that our network of nonprofits highly aligns with our mission. Data informs our funding and policy decisions, and we carefully oversee and assess performance and management.

Historically, our network model has reflected a binary system, whereby an organization is either "in the network" — receiving an annual core operating support grant — or "out of the network" recipients of targeted grants. In 2017, coinciding with the launch of our second century, we found ourselves at a turning point: an optimal moment to evaluate our relationship with our nonprofit partners.

Today, our new model taps into four categories of organizations within our network. Each category is strategically important, conferring a range of benefits and responsibilities to UJA and others in the ecosystem. This model strengthens partnerships and expands our network of relationships, opening the door for greater, more profound innovation and collaboration.

CORE PARTNERS

Core Partners most strongly align with our vision, and are our force in the community to realize our mission. Our core partners share our values, and hold leadership roles both in the public eye and among their professional peers.

STRATEGIC ALLIES

Strategic Allies specialize in a unique area of need, expand UJA's reach, and serve as force multipliers to amplify our ability to tackle pressing challenges in the community. Our relationships with these agencies help us develop nimble approaches to realizing our mission in the community.

TARGETED GRANTEES

Targeted Grantees solve specific problems through program development, specialty projects, and research and development. Targeted funds are available based on communal and organizational needs.

COMMUNITY CIRCLE

Community Circle organizations align with our mission and welcome partners who bring knowledge and expertise to our community table. Participating in UJA events and programs, they are recognized as meeting local needs.

Jewish Life

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Jewish Life department increases opportunities to explore the diversity of Jewish experiences and community in New York, in Israel, and around the world. We value and nurture our rich and varied traditions and heritage, and we look for opportunities to advance Jewish practice through models that are inspirational, innovative, and welcoming. Our work encourages deep, meaningful experiences that build bridges and relationships through mutual respect, understanding, and responsibility among Jews and their neighbors.

The Jewish Life department also builds and strengthens community infrastructure by investing and developing leaders, building the capacity of key organizations, and fostering collaboration among organizations.

Jewish Life's priorities reflect our efforts to encourage growth and change in specific regions and content areas.

PRIORITY 1: JEWISH LIFE IN NEW YORK

Service has been the center of Jewish life for centuries. Recognizing how critical this core value is for our community, our work in New York strengthens the field of Jewish service by building action-oriented coalitions. We support projects that demonstrate the Jewish commitment to repairing the world through grassroots community organizing and demonstrate the power of Judaism and the collective.

We also understand that immersive Jewish experiences are a proven and powerful catalyst for personal transformation and developing connections to community. We support these immersive and holistic Jewish experiences for people of all ages, families, and peer groups — and celebrate access to vibrant Jewish life, regardless of gender, sexuality, race, or ethnicity.

PRIORITY 2: JEWISH LIFE IN ISRAEL

Our dream of a Jewish state includes a society where everyone who lives there feels at home. The vitality and vibrancy of Jewish life is an important and unique characteristic of Israel that we support and nurture.

Jewish Life nurtures, expands, and advocates pluralistic expressions of Judaism, promoting a more socially cohesive society in Israel.

We work with Israelis to bring together diverse segments of Israeli society to work toward common goals. And we support expressions of Judaism that powerfully connect Israelis to their Jewish roots, even if they challenge the status quo.

PRIORITY 3: GLOBAL JEWISH COMMUNITIES

The fall of the Iron Curtain brought on a renaissance of Jewish life in Europe and the former Soviet Union, and we work hard to nurture and promote this effort. We're fostering proud, self-sustaining Jewish communities around the world that vibrantly embrace Judaism in all its plurality, and whose members are strongly connected to their Jewish identity, the State of Israel, and the Jewish people.

Caring

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Caring Department recognizes that anyone can, at some point in their lives, experience the challenges life may bring, whether it's poverty, aging, grief, loneliness, the end of life, special needs, or mental health. Our work is guided by the core values of collective responsibility and tikkun olam, which we demonstrate through building community and promoting volunteerism. We recognize that across the globe, where there's strong Jewish community, all of the components of Jewish life are strong. Finally, we believe in a fair and inclusive Israeli society in which all citizens have equal access to opportunities that strengthen Jewish community worldwide.

PRIORITY 1: MOVE PEOPLE FROM CRISIS TO STABILITY

Many people just get by from month to month, unable to afford escalating food prices, rent, medication costs, and other essentials. This struggle puts them at risk of such crises as eviction and food insecurity.

For those experiencing financial difficulties, we're ready with a full continuum of concrete services, so they can meet their basic life-sustaining needs and attain greater stability. Once they're stabilized, we offer a pathway for those who are able to work toward self-sufficiency, including access to job readiness, employment, and small business development services.

PRIORITY 2: MOVE INDIVIDUALS FROM ISOLATION TO INCLUSION AND RESILIENCE

Suffering takes many forms: the challenges of navigating the end of life, mental illness, or a loved one's dementia; grappling with fertility challenges; struggling to care for a child with special needs; or feeling excluded because of a disability.

We promote communities that reduce stigma, encourage people who are suffering to come forth and get help, and ensure that the services they need are readily accessible for them, wherever they are. In so doing, we help individuals feel less isolated, become more resilient, and achieve their full potential.

PRIORITY 3: ADDRESS COMMUNITY CHALLENGES THROUGH STRATEGIC VOLUNTEERISM

Our community faces many challenges, and our network of nonprofits provides extraordinary service to people in need. However, the demand for care will always be greater than available resources.

We believe that volunteerism is a powerful strategy that amplifies our ability to address high-priority community needs while building caring Jewish community. Through our Jewish Service Enterprise Initiative, we help agencies create a holistic vision for volunteerism and provide the resources to realize this vision.

PRIORITY 4: STRENGTHEN AT-RISK JEWISH COMMUNITIES AROUND THE WORLD

We provide resources to strengthen at-risk Jewish communities around the world. To meet the ongoing human-service needs of vulnerable Jews, we're developing new strategies and piloting models that help Jewish communities receive the support and care they require.

Our resources help build robust and resilient Jewish communities, ensuring the capacity and infrastructure to respond to acute or chronic challenges and to care for and support their members in times of distress.

PRIORITY 5: ADVANCE MARGINALIZED POPULATIONS IN ISRAEL

All Israelis should be able to participate fully in Israeli society — and those who are marginalized should have opportunities to reach their potential and achieve social mobility. We're reducing barriers and increasing possibilities to level the playing field, creating pathways of inclusion for those on the margins and increasing access to educational, employment, and economic opportunities to promote economic mobility.

Total grants awarded in FY 2017: 293

Total dollars awarded in FY 2017: $24,259,365

OUR WORK IS GUIDED BY THE CORE VALUES OF
COLLECTIVE RESPONSIBILITY AND TIKKUN OLAM.

UJA in the Community

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

UJA develops our most innovative approaches to emerging issues in collaboration with people in the community who share our passion for solving problems.

We strive to be nimble, inclusive, and innovative so that we can meet the rapidly evolving needs of a dynamic, fast-changing community. To stay on the leading edge, we experiment with new models of investment and service, including venture funds and special initiatives, giving circles, and geographically focused efforts in Brooklyn, in Westchester, and on Long Island.

We identify gaps that, if filled, could increase vitality and stability in organizations at the center of Jewish life. These opportunities are created to pursue new areas of investment and quickly organize locally and regionally to address emerging challenges.

In Brooklyn

Thanks to the rapid growth of the Jewish community in North and Brownstone Brooklyn, our regional team is on the ground, experimenting with models of community organizing that build relationships across the northern part of the borough.

Day School Challenge Fund

Strong Jewish day schools and yeshivas are key to developing the next generation of Jewish leadership. That's why we focus on the communal challenge of day school sustainability through our Endowment Challenge Fund.

Jewish Life on Campus

With nearly 30,000 Jewish students on campuses in our community, we are deeply vested in providing meaningful Jewish experiences in this time of growth and learning. With an overarching vision for UJA's work on campus, we provide funds and creative solutions to ensure that students have a positive Jewish campus experience.

Kehillah

The New York Jewish community is large and diverse, reflecting an abundance of religious affiliations, ethnicities, and cultural backgrounds among many segments. Kehillah looks for meaningful and creative opportunities to bring together the Jewish community while understanding that there can be unity without uniformity. And that together, we are a people with a shared history — and a shared destiny.

Long Island Program Services

Our regional office works with Jewish institutions on Long Island. Through local allocations, we seed innovative programs and initiatives that address the specific needs of the Long Island Jewish community.

Shituf

Our work in Israel helps all Israelis by providing human services, bridging diversity, and fostering Jewish life. Shituf is a unifying umbrella that ensures this diverse portfolio is connected to a shared vision for our funding in Israel.

SYNERGY

Synagogues provide the Jewish community with a place to gather, share traditions, and feel connected to the past and inspired for the future. SYNERGY provides best-in-class training opportunities, congregational coaching, and cutting-edge research to help synagogues thrive as meaningful hubs of Jewish life.

Time for Good

Living a life of shared responsibility is a core Jewish value. This initiative creates a new framework to address the community's most pressing challenges through volunteerism, inspiring and enabling Jewish New Yorkers to discover meaningful ways to make a difference.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The UJA LAB

The UJA LAB joins together years of experience and an entrepreneurial spirit to offer innovative solutions to emerging needs and challenges that require a rapid response within UJA and the broader Jewish community.

Venture Funds, Giving Circles, and Special Initiatives

UJA understands that because of the size and complexity of our community, our standalone planning and resource departments may not be able to address all issues. Our venture funds and giving circles offer the opportunity to pool philanthropic resources and grant funds to focus on areas of need. In unique cases, UJA's executive leadership approves grants for special initiatives.

Westchester Program Services

Our regional office advances the Westchester Jewish community's efforts to address emerging and ongoing needs through innovation, collaboration, and creative connections.

Wiener Center for Leadership and Learning

We believe that the Jewish community needs leading-edge skills and knowledge to move us into the next phase of Jewish communal life. The Wiener Center offers workshops and programs, leadership education, Jewish learning, and other resources to promote and develop lay and professional excellence in the New York Jewish communal system.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Outside of New York, UJA-Federation of New York is committed to strengthening Israel and supporting Jews around the world. We work closely with our two largest overseas beneficiaries and a consortium of national partners to extend our reach far into the national and international scene.

The Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI) is our official link between the Jewish state and Jewish communities everywhere. Globally, JAFI cultivates meaningful engagement with Israel, facilitates aliyah, revitalizes Jewish communities in the former Soviet Union and Central Europe, and empowers the next generation of European leaders.

The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) improves lives and builds connected Jewish communities in nearly 70 countries around the world. JDC works to alleviate hunger and hardship, especially for the poorest and most disadvantaged Jews in the world; rescue Jews in danger; create lasting connections to Jewish life; and provide immediate relief and long-term development support for victims of natural and man-made disasters.

Total number of grants awarded in FY 2017: 3

Crisis and Recovery

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Natural disasters, terror, violence, and hatred shatter millions of lives each year. But our essential relationships with nonprofits worldwide enable us to quickly, efficiently, and compassionately respond to these global crises.

In fiscal year 2017, we thankfully did not experience large-scale acts of terror or environmental catastrophes. Given the unpredictable nature of disaster relief, we remained committed to laying the groundwork to ensure that we're always prepared. (We will tell the story of our response to Hurricanes Harvey, Irma, and Maria in our Report of Grants Awarded: 2017–2018.)

This year, we also addressed such long-term issues as anti-Semitism, BDS, and trauma in Israel as part of the fabric of our ongoing work, reflected in grants from Caring, Jewish Life, the UJA LAB, and other departments.

Israel Trauma Coalition

Israel Trauma Coalition (ITC) helps individuals and communities cope with traumatic experiences, both natural and man-made.

Created in 2002 in response to the second intifada, ITC comprises leading trauma management NGOs and government organizations. Initially focused on direct care, ITC now address broader issues in the trauma field that include professional training, community resilience, and national emergency preparedness.

And ITC's influence extends beyond Israel to the international community. Wherever there is a need, ITC sends professional teams to respond to crises, train local officials and clinicians on managing trauma, promote rehabilitation, and support resilient, self-sustaining societies.

Jewish Federations of North America

From natural disasters to conflict zones, Jewish Federations of North America (JFNA) is a lifeline for communities in distress in North America, in Israel, and around the world. JFNA's work funds nonprofit partners that can provide food, medicine, and other basic supplies in the immediacy of a crisis, such long-term needs as trauma counseling and rehabilitation, as well as the emergency service providers who deliver the supplies where they're most needed.

In August 2016, record flooding across southern Louisiana killed seven, destroyed countless homes, and forced tens of thousands to flee for their lives — including federation staff and Jewish community members. JFNA worked tirelessly to rally support and flood relief so that the Jewish Federation of Greater Baton Rouge could meet its community's urgent needs and begin the process of cleanup and rebuilding.

In November 2016, wildfires raged across Israel, burning an estimated 700 homes to the ground. Within 24 hours, the Special Operations and Emergency Response unit of the Jewish Agency — a partner of JFNA and UJA — began working closely with JFNA to provide emergency grants to families in need of such basic necessities as clean clothes, medicine, and small household items in the wake of the fire.

Total number of grants awarded in FY 2017: 4

Total dollar amount awarded in FY 2017: $387,991
